Have you thought about how a gift to Samaritans can help your community?

Samaritans

Compassion Integrity Justice

“A gift left in your will can help us to those in need in our community.”

Samaritans offers

Children’s service - such as pre schools and family day care

Community services – such as disaster recovery and community development programs

Disability services – such as respite care and group homes

Youth services – such as early intervention and crisis accommodation

While Samaritans receives government funding for many programs we do rely on donations for much of our work in Emergency Relief, the Grandparents as Parents support and Friendship House, a program assisting those following post-release.

to continue to provide services to

After considering your family and friends please consider a gift that reflects your values and acts as a legacy of your wishes.

Samaritans has been blessed by the generosity of benefactors in times past and we value your support and generosity. (You should always seek legal advice before making your will.)

How to leave a gift?

There are several ways of making gifts in your will.

1. You can; indicate an amount of money
2. Make a specific gift of property
3. Choose to leave the residuary of your estate after other commitments have been met.
