

Samaritans

Who we are

Samaritans is here to support and help people through tough times. We give our help unconditionally with care and respect, empowering individuals to build their resilience and find their place in the community.

Samaritans provides support across the Central Coast, Newcastle, Hunter, Mid North Coast and Central Western regions of NSW.

In addition to Disaster Recovery, our work encompasses areas including:

- Child, youth and family services
- Disability and carer support
- Mental health programs
- Homeless and accommodation support
- Domestic and family violence services
- Financial counselling
- Emergency relief programs
- Samaritans retail shops

In times of disasters like these, it is only natural to want to lend a hand and support communities and families affected.

Disaster Recovery

Bushfires, floods and storms are a reality in Australia.

Now is your chance to assist communities affected by these disasters.

What does a Disaster Recovery volunteer do?

As a registered Disaster Recovery (DR) volunteer, you will play a vital role in supporting those in need during times of chaos.

Based around your availability, you will be able to assist with personal support as well as distributing essential emergency supplies to people affected by the disaster.

Working with a Team Leader and other disaster response organisations, you will ensure that the Evacuation or Recovery Centre operates effectively, making a difference in the community.

We're always looking for new volunteers to join our Disaster Recovery teams.

If you are interested, please contact Samaritans to find out how you can help.

Volunteer today and be the hope.

Our Volunteers

As a Samaritans Disaster Recovery volunteer, you will have a chance to:

- Make new friends and be part of a dedicated team.
- Offer personal, emotional support to those in need.
- Play a key role in helping communities recover.
- Assist in distributing essential supplies at evacuation centres.
- Contribute to a community in need.
