Early Intervention & Activities Program Central Coast

Samaritans Child, Youth and Family Services

Supporting children, young people and their families to achieve their goals

What is Early Intervention & Activities (EIA) Program?

Early Intervention & Activities (EIA) focus on providing support for families with a child or young person aged between 0 and 17 years. The program is an outreach service covering Wyong Shire. We provide casework for up to 12 weeks. We recognise your strengths and encourage you and your family to achieve your goals.

How can you access the Early Intervention & Activities (EIA) Program?

- Simply by calling our office on 4384 8436 between 9am – 5pm (Mon – Fri) or email your enquiry to eiacc@samaritans.org.au. Alternatively, visit <http://www.samaritans.org.au/eiacentralcoast> to access our referral form online.
- A caseworker will call you back within 7 working days.

How can we support you to achieve your goals?

- Visit you at a location where you feel most comfortable
- Listen, be non-judgemental and encourage and support you to make informed decisions
- Acknowledge your strengths and achievements
- Provide advice and referrals for issues including family relationship breakdowns, drug and alcohol misuse, mental health, learning difficulties and challenging behaviours
- Provide you with opportunities to develop further skills in budgeting, cooking, household routines, child development and behaviour management skills and more
- Provide parenting programs and/or link you to parenting programs delivered within your local area
- Provide skills focus groups for young people in schools
- Provide assistance with employment and career options
- Assist you to develop increased self-esteem, confidence, positive communication and more
